

Notification of Title IX Rights

Following are your rights under Title IX:

- You have the right at any time to file a grievance at the District level with CCSD's Title IX Compliance Officer.
- You have the right to file a criminal complaint with your local police department.
- You have the right to protection in the form of interim measures to protect you from an accused (such as a non-contact plan).
- You have the right to remedies to address and prevent sexual harassment/violence.
- You have the right to an investigation at the school level and/or District level to review the evidence impartially and apply a preponderance of evidence standard when determining if a Title IX violation has occurred.
- You have the right to receive information on available resources such as counseling, advocacy, and mental health support.
