

Teachers of the Year

February 2012

Prairie Middle School
12600 E. Jewell Ave.
Aurora, CO 80012

"The teaching goes on."

- Mitch Albom
Tuesdays with Morrie

Mr. Bruce Olson & Ms. Serena Woolfolk

Prairie Middle School is proud to honor our Teachers of the Year, Mr. Bruce Olson and Ms. Serena Woolfolk for the 2011-2012 school year.

Mr. Olson is our English Language Acquisition Teacher for 6th-8th graders. Bruce has been in education fourteen years. One of his colleagues wrote, "Bruce is a strong advocate for kids. He is an amazing teacher and resource for the community." We are pleased to announce Bruce Olson as our 2011-2012 Teacher of the Year.

Ms. Woolfolk is our language arts teacher for 8-2A. This is her sixth year as a member of the Prairie family. One of her colleagues wrote, "Serena consistently cares for her students and strives for new ways to reach them."

We are pleased to announce Serena Woolfolk as our 2011-2012 Teacher of the Year.

We, at Prairie, are both honored and proud of these wonderful teachers on our staff. Mr. Olson and Ms. Woolfolk exemplify the values of Cherry Creek

"To inspire every student to think, to learn, to achieve, to care."

Dates to Remember

Monday, February 20th
Letters due

Wednesday, March 7th
Tea-Reception, 4 – 6 pm
Grandview High School

Wed., Mar. 21st - Fri., April 27th
Reservations for banquet

Tuesday, May 15th:
Awards Banquet, 5 pm
Crowne Plaza DIA

A Continuing Legacy

Prairie Middle School is steeped in rich history of high quality education within our walls. We are proud to honor those today who continue this legacy today. For every day and every period we are writing our own history in the lives of our students.

As we celebrate today, let us also reflect on those teachers who have influenced our own journeys and inspired us to follow in their footsteps.

As Christa McAuliffe stated, "I touch the future. I teach."