

Welcome to Family Room

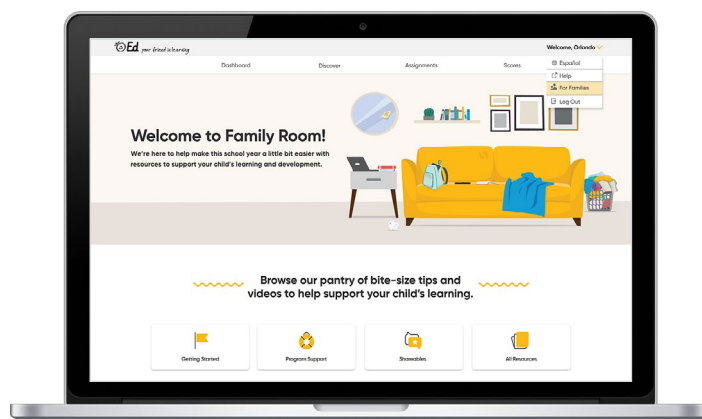

Bite-size tips and videos to help support families and caregivers

Teaching doesn't stop when the school day ends. Children thrive when their families are a part of the learning. That's why HMH® offers Family Room, an ever-growing library of on-demand resources so families can be a part of their children's learning.

Families benefit from

- Access to their children's assignments via the children's Ed® login
- Simple, helpful, and equitable at-home learning support
- Personalized tips and videos to support families and caregivers

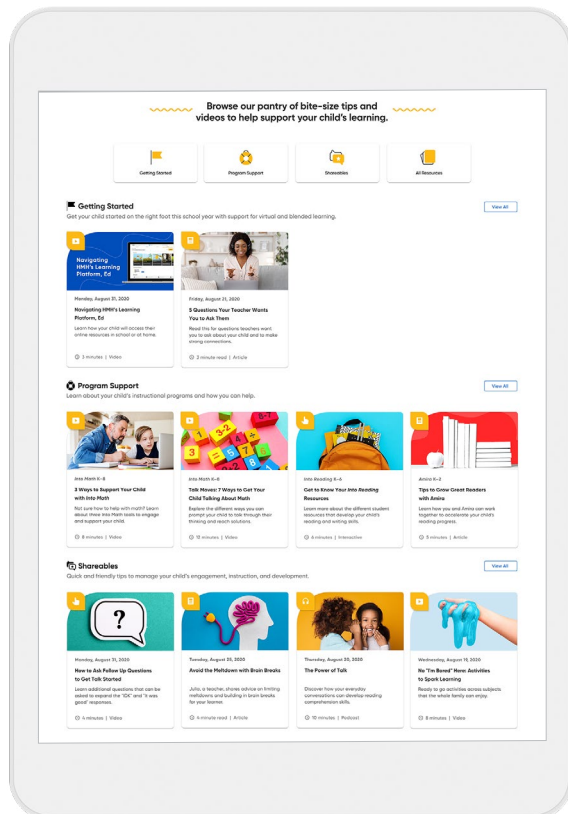

We've made supporting all learning environments more manageable for families and caregivers.

With their children's Ed login, families and caregivers can access

- Their child's assignments, online learning sessions, and resources
- On-demand, bite-size articles, videos, and tips from teachers and other families
- Resources in both English and Spanish

Family Room Resources Support:

HMH Family Room provides all the information and resources you need, in one place, to support your child's learning.

What types of resources are included?

- Getting Started
Tips for family members on how to navigate Ed and questions they can ask their children
- Program Support
Information about their children's instructional programs and how family members can help
- Shareables
Quick and friendly tips to manage their children's engagement, instruction, and development

The list is always growing, so families should check back often!
