

Tarea del Verano: for students entering into PIB 3

The purpose of this homework is to help you retain the language that you have acquired this past school year, and to expose you to more culture. For maximum benefit, I recommend you spread it out over summer and not cram it all in in the beginning of August.

This is due the first day of school. Be ready to turn it in to your PIB 3 Spanish teacher which will likely be Sra. Swanson. 😊 She's amazing!

Please do 4 of the recommended activities. For each activity, get a signature, include an artifact, and write a paragraph reflection. An artifact might include a pamphlet, brochure, picture, print out, book, purchase, etc. For each activity, write a hearty reflection paragraph (or two) summarizing your experience (in English is ok). As your parents may need to come with you to some of the locations, it works best if you plan ahead and put things on your/their calendar. Bring your signature sheets, paragraphs and any other artifacts in for a grade on the first day of your new class.

¡Gracias! Pasa un verano bueno.

Activities List: CHOOSE 4 (but please don't choose 4 of the same kind)

<https://www.bbc.com/mundo> Find an "easy" article in Spanish... one that looks like you can understand the majority of it. Read it and summarize it in a hearty paragraph (English is ok, though you might point out some specific things about vocabulary and verbs if that occurred to you while reading?!?) 😊

Watch a movie or show in Spanish with Spanish subtitles: reflect on what you knew, what you learned, what surprised you, what you wish you'd known, etc.

Go to Barnes and Noble/Tattered Cover/etc. – find the Spanish language section and buy a kids book or magazine in Spanish. Read it for comprehension, but also pronunciation, etc. Maybe read it out loud to someone in your family. Oh! You could also do this for free at the Smoky Hill Library! 😊

Attend a friend's quinceañera

Visit an embassy (of a Spanish Speaking country) and ask questions about visiting their country

Research something historical and profound: suggestions: Spanish Civil War, Simón Bolívar (also an amazing show on Netflix with beautiful Spanish), a holiday, a famous Hispanic, etc.

Restaurant options (list on next page)  You may want to verify they are still open before you go?!? Or they may have weird hours?!? Thanks Covid. Try to use your Spanish! And work on pronunciation! Teach your guests some words or phrases. Maybe refresh your memory on silverware, etc. before you go. In your reflection paragraph you'll want to explain what you ate, how it was, if you'd order it again, with who, how much Spanish you tried to speak, how much of the menu you understood, would you go there again, what's you overall feel on _____-style food.

- Pisco Sour, 14050 E Evans Ave, Aurora, CO 80014, \(303\) 671-4437, Peruvian (a little expensive, but so good!)
